An Ignatian Adventure - 23rd July to 24th September

Holy Trinity is offering a ten-week contemplative retreat 'in the midst of life' for a small to medium sized group on Mondays 1pm to 2pm in the Jordan Centre Chapel

AN IGNATIAN PRAYER ADVENTURE

Contemplative writer, Margaret Silf, explains what an Ignatian Adventure explores:

- How to become increasingly sensitive to God's action in our lives
- How to discover and live true to the very deepest desires within us
- How to make decisions that reflect Gods indwelling presence in the innermost freedom of our hearts, and
- How to engage our lives consciously with the life of Jesus, God-made-man, through the living spirit of the Gospels

Plentiful online material is provided, with group time for questions and discussion, as well as opportunity to explore aspects of Ignatian ways of prayer in a group context and then to practice these ways yourself in your own setting during each week.

Each retreatant would need online capability to access the weekly programme as it unfolds. There is no charge for the online material or for the retreat. For further information or to indicate your interest or your wish to enrol, phone Arthur Bruce on (021) 432 928 or email arthurlbruce@gmail.com.
